[Gabriel Neith is one of the foremost astrologers in America. The predictions in the "Forecast" will be intensely interesting to the readers—either from curiosity or superstition. A look into the year ahead from the astrologer's point of view is bound to be fascinating to everybody.]

ith the coming of the new year it is pleasant to forget all the horrors of 1915, but to study the stars foresee that it is amount to stars foresee that ill transcend in startling events, also of nature and waste of he in all the forest. The record of the new years, will not be altogather some 1916 will be a period of greattreemes. While all the forest in nature appear to unite for streemes. While all the forest in nature appear to unite for struction of material things will be a clearer vision concernie unseen world. Counterbal-greed, cruelity and selfishness, a kindness and eacrifice will pupilly the races of men. He was the first question in every dies athe first question in every dies athe first question in every we who study the stars foresee that 1816 will transcend in startling events, upbeavals of nature and wasts of human life any 12 months in previous history. The record of the new year, however, will not be altogather somber, for 1916 will be a period of greatest extremes While all the forces of human nature appear to unite for the destruction of material things, there will be a clearer vision concerning the unseen world. Countertual-ancing greed, cruelty and selfishness, heroism, kindness and sacrifice will tend to uplift the races of men.

Doubtles athe first question in every mind will be: What do the seem predict concerning the war? The suswer is that the end is far off. Although there will be periods when a strong current appears to be carrying the coefficing nations toward peace. It is not likely that the speak world combat will erd smill 1918. One of the times when peace appears probable will be in March, 1918, and the other in the summer of 1918.

A War of Cycles.

This is a cyclic war. The sub-cycle of March the warrior, began with the

The Element of Surprise.

Although the United States begins the new year more blessed than any country in the world, the stars foestwarn the people that they should prepare for a year of startling events. Business conditions probably will be much affected, since the element of surprise is prominent in all public affairs. Men and women of every class are counseled to be most conservative in their expenditures. The year will be a time for maje guarding money and property.

interference in proper products will be in March. 1914. As war of Corbet.

The A War of WAR probably will continue until 1918, although March, 1916, may bring strong hopes of peace.

As the sub-cycle of Mars continues until 1944, this will not be the last conflict of the nations of the world.

March and June will be memorable months in the United States because of internal troubles as well as external dangers.
